LSVOTF and DPD Arrest Two Violent Offenders

On Thursday, November 2, members of the Lake Superior Violent Offender Task Force and the Duluth Police Department executed search warrants in the 2800 block of Wellington St and the 2400 block of W 4th St on two known drug dealers within the City.

24-year-old Anthony Bradley and 20-year-old Terrence Lampley Jr were detained without incident away from their residences to ensure the safety of our officers and the community. These individuals were known to previously be in possession of illegal firearms and were both on probation for firearm-related offenses. Bradley and Lampley were lodged at the St. Louis County Jail for pending 1st Degree Sale of Fentanyl.

While executing the search warrants, 770 fentanyl pills, a loaded pistol, high-capacity magazines, ammunition, and $39,000 in drug sale proceeds were seized.

Good job to everyone involved in apprehending these violent offenders and continuing to take illegal substances off the streets.
