Duluth Legacy Endowment Fund Accepting Applications

[Duluth, MN] – The Duluth Legacy Endowment Fund is accepting applications from interested groups in the areas of arts and culture, beautification, education, environment, human service, and parks and recreation. The application deadline is February 1, 2015.

The Duluth Legacy Endowment Fund is managed by the Duluth Superior Area Community Foundation and was created to support valued community programs in perpetuity. The Fund has awarded over $33,956 in grants since its inception to improve the quality of life in our community. Community groups are encouraged to work cooperatively with City departments in order to complete their applications.

To apply for funding from the Duluth Legacy Endowment Fund, please submit an inquiry to grantsinfo@dsacommunityfoundation.com with a description of your project, the time frame, and the requested amount.

Interested applicants can access the application at <http://www.dsacommunityfoundation.com/duluth-legacy-endowment-fund---apply-for-a-grant>
