SUBJECT: City of Duluth Issues Statement about Husky Refinery Explosion

BY: Pakou Ly, Communications Office

The City of Duluth is saddened to hear of the explosion at the Husky refinery in Superior, Wisconsin. The City of Duluth, and the Duluth Fire Department, have offered assistance and remain on standby should the Superior Fire Department need it. The two cities, and Mayors Paine and Larson, have been and remain in communication. This situation is ongoing and developing. The Superior Fire Department has operational control of the situation, and all questions should be directed to them.
