Duluth Public Arts Commission seeks artist submissions for Utility Box Wrap Art Program

[DULUTH, MN] The Duluth Public Arts Commission (DPAC) is seeking art to exhibit for its Utility Box Wrap Art Program.

The Utility Box Wrap Art program's mission is to beautify the City throughout neighborhoods with a focus on geographic equity. This program allows artists the opportunity to display artwork on utility boxes in various locations throughout the city. DPAC is currently accepting submissions now through April 30 for one available utility box wrap.

Submissions will be reviewed by DPAC, and the awarded artist will be notified by May 24.
