Parks and Recreation to Dial Back Programming during Executive Order

[Duluth, MN] In accordance with Executive Order 20-99, the City of Duluth's Parks and Recreation Division is dialing back on programming and building use. All in-person programming has been canceled, beginning today, November 20. Parks and trails remain open for public use.

Please stay tuned to the Parks and Recreation social media pages! Staff will continue to provide updates and creative recreation options for individual and virtual recreation opportunities throughout our community.
