Public Invited to Additional Chester Creek Concerts

[Duluth, MN] - The City of Duluth Parks and Recreation division is happy to present three more Chester Creek Concerts in Chester Bowl Park as part of the summer concert series. The community is invited to visit the park and enjoy free music under the beautiful canopy of trees. Bring a friend and a chair to this fun family event.

The scheduled shows are:

August 12 - Fish Heads

August 19 - Rock-A-Billy Revue

August 26 - Busterville

All three concerts start at 6:30 PM.

The public is also reminded that flood related repairs are taking place on the western entrance into Chester Bowl Park and access into the park is open only from the eastern approach from Chester Park Drive. The City thanks the public for their continued support of the Chester Creek Concert series.

Call the Chester Creek Concert hotline at (218) 730-4326 or check the "DuluthParksMN" Facebook page for weather related changes.
