Additional Conditions per Funding Source

- Waste, Fraud, Abuse and Whistleblower Protections. Any person who becomes aware of the existence of apparent existence of fraud, waste or abuse of any HUD award must report such incidents to both the HUD official responsible for the award and to HUD's Office of Inspector General (OIG). HUD OIG is available to receive allegations of fraud, waste, and abuse related to HUD programs via it's hotline number (1-800-347-3735) and it's online hotline form. You must comply with 41 U.S.C. §4712, which includes informing your employees in writing of their rights and remedies, in the predominant native language of the workforce. Under U.S.C. § 4712, employees of a government contractor, subcontractor, grantee and subgrantee – as well as a personal services contractor – who make a protected disclosure about a Federal grant or contract cannot be discharged, demoted or otherwise discriminated against as long as they reasonably believe the information they disclose is evidence of: 1. Gross mismanagement of Federal contract or grant; 2. Waste of Federal funds; 3. Abuse of authority relating to a Federal contract or grant; 4. Substantial and specific danger to public health and safety; or 5. Violations of law, rule, or regulation related to a Federal contract or grant.
- Violence Against Women Act. The Grantee will comply with the right to report crime and emergencies protections at 34 U.S.C. 12495 of the Violence Against Women Act.
