Traffic Advisory – Alzheimer Walk

On Saturday, September 28th, the Alzheimer Walk will be held in the Downtown area, resulting in traffic interruptions on Harbor Drive and Railroad Street. The event starts at 10:00 am and lasts for approximately 1 hour.

Railroad Street will be closed to traffic from 09:30am to approximately 11:30. Officers will be at Garfield Avenue to assist those needing to get to Railroad businesses during when it is safe to do so.

Harbor Drive will be closed to traffic from just below the DECC entrance near the Irvin, to the Aquarium from 09:00am to approximately 11:30. The DECC entrance and exit on Harbor Drive will remain open, but exit on 5th Avenue will be closed.

The Aquarium Lot will be closed briefly, from 10:00am until 10:30am, but will then re-open.

Vehicles parked in the DEDA and Playfront lots on Railroad Street will not be able to exit until the race has started and all participants have passed those lots. At that point vehicles will be allowed to exit EAST onto Railroad St.

Motorists driving in the area of this event should be aware of brief street closures and watch for Officers directing traffic.

If you have any questions contact Duluth Police Officer Bill Stovern (218) 390-2297.
